IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Now Ready.—Crown 8vo., cloth, 7s. 6d.

THE SECOND VOLUME OF
THE BOOK OF THE TWELVE PROPHETS
 COMMONLY CALLED THE MINOR.

By GEORGE ADAM SMITH, D.D., LL.D.,

Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis, Free Church College, Glasgow.

Completing The Expositor's Bible in 49 Volumes.

THE Expositor's Greek Testament.

EDITED BY THE REV. W. ROBERTSON NICOLL, M.A., LL.D.

(In Four Volumes.)

The FIRST VOLUME (Now Ready), handsomely bound in buckram cloth, consists of The GOSPELS of ST. MATTHEW, ST. MARK, and ST. LUKE, by the Rev. Professor A. B. BRUCE, D.D.; and The GOSPEL of ST. JOHN, by the Rev. Professor MARCUS DODS, D.D.

"THE EXPOSITOR'S GREEK TESTAMENT" is on the plan of Dean Alford's Greek Testament, which had a long course of popularity and usefulness in this country. The first volume was published in 1849 and the last in 1861, and the work formed an epoch in Biblical studies in England, although it is now out of date. "THE EXPOSITOR'S GREEK TESTAMENT" will seek to fill its place, and the contributors include the most eminent Biblical scholars in Great Britain.

A full Prospectus, with Specimen Pages, is now ready, and will be forwarded on application to the Publishers.

The price of each volume is 28s., but for those who subscribe in advance the price for TWO VOLUMES is 30s.

"The best book on the synoptics a minister could consult. It can be read through with delight, with exhilaration, with a constant wonder at its freshness, fertility, insight."—Dr. DENNEY, in the British Weekly.

"The first thing that strikes one when he takes up the volume on the Gospels is the uncommon handsomeness of the book. It is a joy to handle it and look into its pages. It is the very book to lure a student into reading. The form is so superb, the paper so choice and so light, the margins so delightfully broad, the type so clear and so tasteful. The two scholars to whom this volume has been committed are the very men for the work. Each is a master of his subject, and each has gone into his task con amore. . . A work worthy of the most cordial appreciation."

First Form of "The Christian Year."

In 2 Volumes, foolscap 8vo., bound in drab boards, with paper label, price 5s. net.

A Fac-Simile Reprint

of the First Edition of

KEBLE'S CHRISTIAN YEAR,

Printed in 1827.

With a Preface by the Bishop of Rochester.

The first printed form of a book which has taken such a position, and has been of such great help to the devout mind, as The Christian Year, must ever have a deep interest for the reader, and awaken the curiosity of the bibliographer.

The first edition of The Christian Year was published in the summer of 1827, in two thin foolscap 8vo. volumes. It was issued in what now would be considered an old-fashioned form: printed on paper of the period, and bound in dull-gray boards, with the title printed on a proper label and pasted on the back of the volumes.

It is these two quaint-looking volumes which are now being issued in fac-simile, giving the exact form, text, and appearance which characterized the first issue; and the publisher believes that there are very many who would be glad to possess an exact replica of this now classical book, which is so well known and highly valued by all English-speaking people. The fac-simile is introduced by a short but sympathetic preface by the Bishop of Rochester, who for many years was Warden of Keble College.

Extracts from Reviews.

"Will prove a treasure to book-lovers."—Guardian.

"There are certainly few books of the present century that have been as much read or as extensively circulated, and perhaps none which has had so wide an influence for good. The Bishop of Rochester writes a brief but appreciative preface to this new fac-simile edition."—Church Family Newspaper.

"Any modern purchaser of the Christian Year will find few of the later editions more charming than this old one."—Record.

"For all who love their Keble, these two volumes will be an excellent present."—Churchwoman.

"One of the most curious publications of the period."—Bath Herald.

"A better gift, outside the greatest of books, for a thoughtful reader could not well be found."—Family Churchman.

"An interesting memorial of a book that has seen more editions, probably, than any others of its class."—Weekly Times and Echo.

"Certain to be widely appreciated."—Dundee Advertiser.

"The whole appearance of the book is neat and refined. In every respect it is to be commended."—Nottingham Daily Guardian.

"It would be difficult to name any book of sacred verse of our own literature that has been so widely circulated, or that has had so profound an influence."—Manchester Guardian.

"The issue is a most interesting one, and will be greatly valued by any. A list of emendations in the later editions is placed at the beginning of the first volume."—Illustrated Church News. 4

TOOLS FOR TEACHERS.

A Collection of Anecdotes, Illustrations, Legends, etc., for the use of Teachers of Sunday-schools, Bible-classes, and Boys' Brigades, and generally of all engaged in the Moral and Religious Training of the Young.

Compiled and arranged by WILLIAM MOODIE.

THIS book is not intended as a repertory of stories gathered together for their own sake. It is meant to be a practical manual and storehouse for Teachers of Sunday-schools, Bible-classes, and Boys' Brigades, and generally for all who have to do with the moral and religious training of the young.

The work contains fully eight hundred anecdotes, is tastefully printed in very clear type, and is arranged in separate paragraphs, with a title above each. Two very full indexes, one of Subjects, the other of Persons, are added, which enable the reader to turn up any anecdote or illustration he may need on a given subject.

"Evidently a book of thought and meaning, and will, I trust, find its place among the implements of human teaching."—Dr. C. J. VAUGHAN, Master of the Temple.

"I have looked through your book, and found it difficult to lay it down. The greatest want in the equipment of the Sunday-school Teacher has been, in my opinion, a book of this kind; and it seems to me that this book of yours admirably supplies the want."—Rev. Prof. MARCUS DODS, D.D.

"The reader will find some 500 pages of admirable material here for making addresses lively and pointed. There is quite an exceptional freshness in the book; so much of the work is new, while what is old is of that excellent kind which could not well be spared."—Liverpool Mercury.

"The compiler has drawn his matter from sources which are not usually tapped for the requirements of the Sunday-school. The novelty of the plan gives a freshness to the volume that must irresistibly attract a mind that would fain get out of the common rut of illustrative teaching."—Rock.

"With such a wide and varied supply of subjects and text as is here brought together a teacher need never be at a loss."—Scotsman.

"The work will be found an excellent repertory of illustrative material."—Dundee Advertiser.

"We can strongly recommend this volume. As a whole the collection is fresh, natural, representative, and effective. Printing and binding are first rate."—Methodist Times.

"How often has the Sunday-school Teacher desired to make his or her lesson more interesting by telling an appropriate anecdote or legend, and felt the want of a book to which to refer for them! Here is just the book for the purpose, touching on almost all the subjects that a teacher deals with."—Cambridge Independent.

"Here are things new and old, brief and full, simple and profound, all told with a purpose, and that purpose the aiding of the servants of the King."—Word and Work.

"This will prove a very useful handbook for teachers of Sunday-schools and Bible-classes."—Ecclesiastical Gazette.

"It will be found that the stories and extracts illustrate moral rather than dogmatic points, and the anecdotes have, as a rule, been wisely left to point their own morals."—Guardian.

"The work is well arranged, and should prove in every way a valuable companion to all who are engaged in teaching the young."—Quiver.

"The selections are upon the whole very good, and, above all, are unhackneyed."—Literary World.

"The anecdotes and illustrations are fresh and far more readable than the contents of books like this usually are."—The Sunday-School.

"This collection is the work of a practical teacher, and one of its advantages is, that it has been compiled chiefly for Sunday-school teachers."—Church Sunday-School Magazine.

"The best illustrations are those drawn from his everyday experience and his fund of observation; but when these fail, a book of illustrations is a vast help."—Friend.

LOMBARD STREET IN LENT.

Being a Selection from a Course of Sermons on Social Subjects, organized by the London Branch of the Christian Social Union, and Preached in the Church of St. Edmund, King and Martyr, Lombard Street, during Lent.

WITH A PREFACE BY THE BISHOP OF DURHAM.

"The most remarkable Series of Sermons ever preached from the pulpit of this country. Had the Union done nothing but organise this series, it might have considered its life worth living."—Echo.

"The brilliant string of discourses brought together in the striking volume are full of a spacious wisdom and a universal goodwill which must delight all but those who would willingly believe that the church was effete in itself and dead in its influence for good or ill amongst us."—Daily Telegraph.

"The whole series gives a very valuable addition to homiletic literature on some of the leading questions of to-day. Excellently represent the objects of the Christian Social Union."—Church Family Newspaper.

"An epoch-making volume. We hope that the fact that this is a volume of sermons will deter no one from reading it. There are sermons and sermons, and those before us deal in a fundamental and helpful manner with problems affecting the well-being of men and women everywhere."—Oxford Chronicle.

CHURCH OF IRELAND SUSTENTATION FUND.

(LONDON COMMITTEE IN AID.)

Patron—THE DEAN OF NORWICH.

Chairman of Committee—THE LORD CLAUD J. HAMILTON.

This Fund was founded at Disestablishment as a channel for sympathy of friends in England with their brethren of the Church of Ireland.

It is now devoted entirely to enabling the ministry of the Church to be maintained in the South and West of Ireland, in parishes where the Protestants are few and isolated, and UNABLE TO MAINTAIN THEIR CHURCH UNAIDED.

Last year EIGHTY-NINE parishes received grants from this Fund, administered through their own diocesan schemes.

THE NEED of this help is unabated, and the Committee earnestly appeal to English Churchmen to give this testimony of fellowship with their isolated brethren bravely holding the outposts. Their help in supplementing the efforts of the Church herself is much appreciated.

Donations may be sent to Messrs. COUTTS and CO., Strand, W.C.; to the Treasurer, Sir C. R. LIGHTON, Bart., 31 Billiter Buildings, Billiter Street, E.C.; or to the Hon. Secretaries, the Misses NUGENT, 29 Eaton Terrace, London, S.W.

Would not friends send us a "ROYAL GIFT" for this special year?

The East-End Mission to the Jews.

FUNDS URGENTLY NEEDED towards the Medical Mission, the General Work, the Charity Work, to help the Sick and Hungry during the Winter. No food, no fire, illness and distress, are the daily experience during the winter. Will you kindly help us to alleviate the sufferings of the poor and show them Christian sympathy?

Cheques and P.O.'s to be crossed "London and Westminster Bank," Whitechapel.

BEFORE SIXTY YEARS AGO.

The special claims of the SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING FEMALE EDUCATION IN THE EAST to recognition are:

- (1) That it was the only Society for both Zenana work and School work existing in the Empire at the time of the Queen's Accession.
- (2) That it was then already carrying on Zenana work, Harem work, and School work, in China, the Straits, Egypt, and India.
- (3) That it was the pioneer of all subsequent efforts in Zenana and Harem work, for which it prepared the way, by encountering and, to a certain extent overcoming, the greatest initial difficulties.
- (4) That it still occupies a wider sphere than any kindred Society in existence.
- (5) That by the help of God it has continued steadfast unto this day "in the Apostles' doctrine," and in the work of sending the Gospel to the heathen women and girls of the East.

The Committee urge these claims, and appeal for help to their Commemoration Fund, to enable them to strengthen and extend the work of the Society.
