THAMES CHURCH MISSION.

INSTITUTED 1844.

“Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.”

1 Tim. i. 15.

“For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me: yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel!”—1 Cor. ix. 16.

THE Gospel MUST be preached to the perishing souls who, day by day, are working on our Great River, and the Committee of the Thames Church Mission find NECESSITY LAID ON THEM to ask those of the Lord's servants who possess their Master's gold and silver to assist as in their power this imperative command. The Mission has during the past year, from many causes, suffered financially. An urgent need is the reason for this appeal.

KENSIT'S WICKLIFFE PREACHERS.

(Founded by the late John Kensit, 1898.)

Enterprising ! Educational ! Evangelistic !

The prayerful sympathy and practical support of all Protestants is asked for the great work of the Wickliffe Preachers. Since their formation they have traversed all parts of England, arousing the people and preaching the Word. The need of the work was never more demonstrated than at the present time, when the Protestantism of our Church and Constitution is being assailed, and our liberty of speech denied.

We are holding over 50 Meetings every week with increasing success in our large cities, small towns, and country villages. We intend to still go forward in this great fight for Gospel Truth, in the face of all opposition, with the assurance, "God is our Refuge and Strength," knowing if "He be for us we need not fear those against us."

Another Band of Five Preachers will be sent forth on Easter Monday from Lutterworth, where John Wickliffe first sent out his Preachers. This will make a total of four Bands, in addition to our many vigorous Branches throughout the country.

The Ladies' Union of Protestant Workers, formed through the indefatigable exertions of Mrs. John Kensit, needs more Lady Helpers to make articles for the Wickliffe Preachers' Annual Sale of Work. Will you start a branch in your district?

The John Kensit Martyr Memorial Training Home

for the thorough equipment of the Wickliffe Preachers. Contributions are earnestly pleaded for towards this very practical memorial. Collecting Cards for this object will be sent on application.

A Popular Life of the late John Kensit has just been issued, and is written by the Rev. J. C. Wilcox, B.A., Chaplain to the Crusade. This work should find a place in the Library of every Protestant. In cloth and fully illustrated, One Shilling. We need more subscribers to our general fund for work in Ritualistic Parishes, our dark Rural Districts, and among the Children. Who will take one of our Collecting Boxes or Cards to collect small items for the advancement of the work ?

The movements of the Preachers and the aggressive action of the Crusade is fully reported in

Our Two Illustrated Official Organs,

The Churchman's Magazine and The Beacon Fire. Price One Penny each monthly, or yearly subscription Three Shillings, post free.

These Magazines are up-to-date and interesting, and deserve the support of all friends.

NEW VOLUME OF THE "CHURCH'S OUTLOOK SERIES" NOW READY.

Crown 8vo., cloth, price 2s. 6d. net.

THE POSITION
OF THE LAITY IN THE CHURCH.

By ALFRED BARRY, D.D., D.C.L.,

Canon of Windsor and Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of London ; formerly Bishop of Sydney and Primate of Australia.

The object of this work is to examine briefly the true position of the Laity in the Church of Christ, in regard both to rights and responsibilities. This examination renders it necessary to consider that position ideally, as a part of the Apostolic Constitution of the Church of the New Testament and of primitive times, and also to trace in slight outline the historical developments of that position in times past and present, especially in relation to our own branch of the Catholic Church. The task is undertaken under the strong conviction that, with a view both to Church Reform and to Church progress, it is urgently necessary for us to secure for our Church some organization of self-government in which clergy and laity shall be adequately represented and rightly co-ordinated under Episcopal direction.

The following list of contents of various chapters will best indicate the idea and the plan of the work.

CONTENTS.

Preface.

The Apostolic Ideal of the Church.

The Growth of Hierarchical Power in the Early and Middle Ages.

The Reaction against the Hierarchical Power and Re-assertion of the rights of the whole Body of the Church.

The Course of the English Reformation and the Establishment of the Anglican Position.

The Post-Restoration History in the Anglican Communion.

The Present Course of Church Opinion in England.

The Definition of Lay Church Membership.

Conclusion.

"It was in the highest degree fitting that the series of handbooks on current ecclesiastical problems which is in course of publication under the title of The Church's Outlook for the Twentieth Century should include a volume on "The Position of the Laity in the Church," and to no one could the writing of it have been more suitably entrusted than to Bishop Barry."—Record.

"Canon Barry writes in a simple and popular way, and has done well, we think, in not overloading his pages with notes and references."—Bookseller.

"The book before us is a competent and able one."—Aberdeen Free Press.

"His book should be widely consulted. He is a very fair-minded writer, urbane in style, and always clear in exposition."—Sussex Daily News.

"Canon Barry gives a brief, learned, and clearly written account of the English doctrine as to 'The Position of the Laity in the Church.'"—Scotsman.

*. The Key-thought of the new Book is the Royalty of Service—ICH DIEN; perhaps the lesson most needed to make a Happy Home or a Happy Nation.

NEW VOLUME OF SERMONS BY CANON WILBERFORCE.

In crown 8vo., cloth, gilt lettered, 5s.

FEELING AFTER HIM.

Sermons Preached for the most part in Westminster Abbey.

(SECOND SERIES)

By BASIL WILBERFORCE, D.D.,

Archdeacon of Westminster, Chaplain to the Speaker, Select Preacher before the University of Oxford.

"The sermons are eloquent and inspiring, and made interesting and instructive by apt illustrations from life and literature."—Scotsman.

"What a feast for reflective minds the whole volume provides! It is worthy of the many-sided clergyman whose voice has electrified refined audiences in the general Abbey by the Thames, and has in dinner-house poured forth persuasive exhortations into the ears of workmen preparing the edifice for the Coronation."—Christian Commonwealth.

"These sermons are quite worthy of his genius, and will stir their readers into nobleness. We heartily commend them."—Great Thoughts.

"There is scarcely a dull moment. We can do with more sermons like these as soon as the preacher is ready—the sooner the better."—Leeds Mercury.

"The sermons are characterized by the boldness of conception and aptness of expression which we are accustomed to expect in anything Archdeacon Wilberforce says or writes."—Church Sunday-School Magazine.

"The sermons are masterly and powerful appeals."—Hants Advertiser.

"The book bears on every page evidence of a strong mind, and it has passages of brilliant eloquence."—Sussex Daily News.

"When Archdeacon Wilberforce comes to practical exhortation he is splendid—earnest, forcible, and fearless. Several of the sermons have special reference to recent national events. The book has much to commend it."—Aberdeen Free Press.

"These sermons, preached in the Abbey by the Archdeacon of Westminster, are exceptionally able. They are all thoughtful, vigorous, and inspiring."—Weekly Leader.

"Taken altogether, there is much manly, broad-minded, and inspiring teaching in these discussions, and as they are at the same time lit up by many an apt quotation and illustration, they may well furnish an hour or two's profitable reading."—Oxford Chronicle.

"We commend the reading of 'Feeling after Him,' which, though coming through a Church luminary, belongs to no Church, but to humanity, breathing forth as it does a wide and universal charity."—Light of Reason.

"Instinct with pathetic sympathy for the social side of life, interlarded with poetical quotations and story-lore deftly handled, the Archdeacon's sermons are characterized by light and freshness, and an earnestness, even to enthusiasm, of devotion to the good of his fellow man."—Family Churchman.

In crown 8vo., cloth, 5s. net.

 Food Breeding in the New Testament.
 Byways of the Bible.
 The Literary Value of the Old Testament.

"In this little book, made up of a couple of dozen papers contributed to the Spectator by a lay contributor, we have found more food for reflection than is often met with in a volume of occasional essays on Biblical subjects. . . . We believe that the book is well worth reading and that the writer deserves well of students of the Bible."—Guardian.

"We cordially recommend the book, agreeing with its editor that there is a place for such work, and for 'liberty of prophesying' by those who claim to go direct to the word of God in their search for truth and to form their own judgment."—Times Lit. Suppt.

"In this book you can find the best exegesis on the Bible from the most valuable standpoint—spiritual sympathy—that the English Church has produced for many a long day. . . . 'M. C. E.' has given us a noble and beautiful book—a commentary on practical religion of inestimable value."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"Written with attractive simplicity. . . . The author has considerable powers of reflection and the gift of lucid statement."—Standard.

"They give the impressions made on a reader not versed in theology, but keenly interested in religious matters, by some of the great personalities and remarkable utterances of Scripture, the voice of A LAY MIND SPEAKING TO LAY MINDS."—Spectator.

"Plain readings of Bible truth. . . . Sane, suggestive, thoughtful."—Outlook.

"They are fresh, vigorous, and living studies, the work of one who thinks and looks at Scripture directly."—Aberdeen Free Press.
