FOUNDED six years ago, the LEAGUE has organized over two hundred courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer-Book.

It has held nearly four hundred and seventy meetings to explain the teachings and practices of the Primitive Catholic Church, and one hundred and fifty sermons have been preached.

It has published and distributed numerous books and pamphlets on the history, doctrine, and teaching of the Church, written by Churchmen of commanding position and scholarship.

It has provided for its members a central and twenty branch lending libraries, which contain standard works of reference on the Bible and Prayer Book, and many books of theology, biography, and history.

It has founded a Church Sisters' Home, where ladies are trained and sent out to work under parochial clergy among the sick and the poor. The Home now has twenty-four Sisters working under the clergy in very poor districts of London, Birmingham, Liverpool, and Plymouth. The Sisters give invaluable help to the over-worked Clergy in crowded parishes, where the poor are waiting to be reached, to be taught and helped in the many ways open only to women.

It has opened a seaside Convalescent Home at Birchington, where poor children, from the parishes in which the Church Sisters work, are sent for three or four weeks' change and care.

It has established two of the finest schools for girls in the country. At one of these (Uplands School, St. Leonard's-on-Sea) the fees are well within the reach of parents of small means.

It has been instrumental in establishing Cherwell Hall, a College at Oxford for the training of women secondary teachers.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED for the Maintenance and Extension of all these Works.

The LEAGUE is in no sense a narrow, a party, or a political organization.

Far away in the Bush, thousands find themselves without the Gospel. Parents drift away from all religion; children grow up in ignorance of God; even the dead are buried without prayer.

The Divine Idea OF Human Dress.

BY

W. MARSHALL.

“This is not only an original but a very excellent work, full of chaste thought, striking ideas, and luminous interpretation, a book to linger over, to enjoy, to take up again, and then put permanently on one's shelf. The author elaborates the spiritual meaning attached to dress in its comprehensive character, and pursues the subject from earth up to heaven, and down even into hell itself.”—Rock.
