DECEMBER, 1907.

LETTERS FROM CELEBRITIES.

THE keynote of happiness, long life, and successful achievement is the healthy mind in the healthy body. Sanatogen is the tonic food which is being prescribed by the medical profession to-day to bring about this happy condition. Not only have 5,000 physicians endorsed in writing the merits of Sanatogen as the ideal recuperative and restorative, but the most distinguished men and women of the day have not hesitated in coming forward to personally testify to the great benefits they have derived from Sanatogen.

Thus Ven. Archdeacon Sinclair writes:

"THE CHAPTER HOUSE,
"ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL, E.C.

"Sanatogen appears to be an admirable food for invalids and those who suffer from indigestion."

William Sinclair

Sanatogen is not a secret remedy. Its composition is known to and approved by the medical profession. It is a scientific combination of pure milk albumen with phosphorus, the substance which forms the most important constituent of the brain and nervous system. Owing to its composition, Sanatogen nourishes the system whilst toning the nerves and giving healthy stimulus to the brain. In fact, it gives to body, brain, and nerves their essential food in precisely the form in which they can the most readily appropriate it to their various needs, and so Sanatogen aids in building up the tissues as well as toning them.

The Right Rev. Bishop of Bath and Wells writes:

"THE PALACE, WELLS, SOM.

"You may like to hear that I am informed by my private secretary that a member of his family has derived very remarkable benefit from using Sanatogen."

G.W. Bath & Wells

In this age of nervous waste Sanatogen is an ideal tonic remedy for those suffering from overwrought nerves. Sanatogen is especially useful in all cases where, through overwork or other causes, the bodily or mental powers show signs of flagging.

Mr. Marshall Hall, the eminent K.C., writes:

"3, TEMPLE GARDENS,
"LONDON, E.C.

"I think it only right to say that I have tried Sanatogen, and I believe it to be a most excellent food."

Marshall Hall

Dyspepsia, weakness, nervousness, depression disappear under a course of this tonic food remedy.

Sanatogen is eminently suitable for invalids, for, whilst it is a powerful recuperative and restorative, it can be borne by the most delicate stomach when other food is rejected. Sanatogen aids digestion and strengthens the digestive organs; it repairs the wear and tear of the system; it enriches the blood and restores the buoyancy, the elasticity, the vigour of health.

Sanatogen can be obtained of all Chemists.

The above are a few only of the many famous personages who have written in high praise of Sanatogen. Readers who are interested in autograph collections—and the characteristics of celebrities as displayed in their handwriting make an always absorbing study—will appreciate the dainty publication issued by the Sanatogen Company. It is entitled "Autographs of Celebrities," and contains the facsimile signatures of a large number of distinguished people. A copy will gladly be sent gratis and post free upon application (a postcard will do) to the Sanatogen Company, 83, Upper Thames Street, London, E.C., mentioning the Churchman.

The Churchman says :

“ Mr. Sherlock’s well-known publication comes of age next year, and we congratulate him on twenty-one years of fine service on behalf of parish literature. The Church Monthly has done much to improve our parish magazines—indeed, it was the pioneer of the quality to which we are now accustomed. The illustrations have always been excellent, though we are glad to know that process blocks are no longer ignored. The Church Almanack has as its centre-piece the picture of Our Lord carrying His cross, by Ary Scheffer, with views of the English cathedrals as the border. This latter feature is a welcome repetition of a former year’s Almanack, and with the well-produced centre picture will doubtless make this Almanack attractive to many Churchmen.”

The sobriety of judgment and the width of reading that has gone to the production of this part of the work seem to be equally remarkable."

THE RELIGIOUS TRACT SOCIETY,

NATIONAL CHURCH LEAGUE.

For the Defence and Promotion of the Reformed Faith of the Church of England.

"CATHOLIC, APOSTOLIC, REFORMED, PROTESTANT."

Chairman of Executive—THE VERY REV. THE DEAN OF CANTERBURY.
General Secretary—SIR C. ROBERT LIGHTON, Bart.

THE NATIONAL CHURCH LEAGUE has been formed by the amalgamation of the Church of England League and the National Protestant Church Union.

It is the aim of the LEAGUE to maintain the comprehensive character of the Church of England in the broad and tolerant spirit which has been its glory in the past, while at the same time repudiating the errors which the recent Report of the Royal Commission on Ecclesiastical Discipline has shown to prevail to an increasing extent in the Church.

The LEAGUE endeavours to carry on its work on educational and spiritual lines. It sets forward works of piety and charity in cordial co-operation with all parochial clergy who are faithful to the principles of the English Reformation.

It aims at founding and supporting schools, Training Colleges, and religious institutions for inculcating, spreading, and defending those principles.

It supports the authorities of the National Church in the maintenance of the law, it upholds the Prayer Book and Articles as the standard of doctrine and worship in the Church of England, and opposes the introduction into the services of the Church of anything inconsistent therewith.

Membership of the LEAGUE is open only to members of the Church of England.

It organizes sermons and courses of lectures on Church History and the Prayer Book, establishes branches and arranges Meetings throughout the country, and publishes and circulates literature bearing on Church questions.

Funds are Urgently Needed for the Maintenance and Extension of its Work.

NEW POPULAR ATLAS OF MISSIONS.

In pocket form, bound in cloth, price 1s. 6d. nett. SHORTLY.

HANDY ATLAS

TO CHURCH AND EMPIRE.

Comprising 120 Maps, Plates and Statistical Tables, showing the advance of Missions in all parts of the British Empire to the present day.

EDITED BY

The REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,
Rector of Lambeth,

And the REV. C. BARTON, M.A.,
Rector of Rousdon.

THE growing interest in Foreign Missions, especially those within our own Empire, calls for an Atlas small enough to be carried in the pocket to missionary meetings, and yet large enough not only to give clear maps of the different Mission Fields, but a sufficiency of information to enable the reader to at once gauge the extent of the work that is carried on, and the needs to be supplied. It is this that the Editors have done their best to produce. The Atlas, which is to be sold at the very moderate price of 1s. 6d. nett, not only gives over 100 coloured maps by J. G. Bartholomew, F.R.G.S., 6 coloured diagrams representing comparative Trade, Area, Population, Missionary Progress, Workers, Cost, etc., but also a Descriptive List of British Colonies and Dependencies, and an Ecclesiastical Gazetteer giving the area, population, numbers of Church members, communicants, etc., and other information of every foreign Diocese within the British Empire. It is hoped that through a study of these facts not only will Churchmen have an intelligent knowledge of the Christian work that is being carried on within the Empire, but be prepared to take their part in the varied discussions that must arise next year, when Bishops from all parts of the world are about to meet at the Lambeth Conference. Keewatin, Koonayte, Bunbury are, with some, mere names, whilst, even in well-known Mission Fields, many would not care to be catechized as to the character of the work that is being carried on. It is hoped that this Atlas may not only remove the difficulty that many feel in getting any real knowledge of the work as a whole, but awaken fresh interest in that part of the work abroad with which they are already well acquainted.

Can be had at all booksellers' and bookstalls.

THE CHURCH OF IRELAND.

"CATHOLIC, APOSTOLIC, REFORMED, PROTESTANT."

After her Disendowment, a Fund was founded in England for the purpose of helping those Parishes, mainly in the South and West, which by the poverty of their members, and where the Protestants are few, are unable to maintain their clergyman and service without outside help.

Last year Grants were made to 101 Parishes, in which the need was greatest and the local efforts had been made most earnestly.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

By REV. C. L. DRAWBRIDGE, M.A. 3s. 6d. net.

The CHURCHMAN says:

"This book is one to be unreservedly recommended. It should be in the hands of every clergyman and of every teacher in our Sunday-schools; and we think that teachers in other than Sunday-schools would do well to peruse it. We have read every word of it with interest and with entire sympathy; it is a book that appeals to one by reason of its wit as well as its wisdom, its sound principles as well as its homely common sense. Few better contributions to the Education Question have been penned than chapter viii. of this book."

THE POETICAL WORKS OF H. FRANCIS LYTE.

Arranged in the order of their publication, with an Introduction on his Life and Writings.

By the Rev. J. APLEYARD.

Although Francis Lyte's hymns are so well known, and are sung by Christian people of all denominations and in all lands, few know how rich a store of verse he wrote, and how varied are their character and beauty.

His hymns and poems were scattered over a period of 35 years, and no attempt has hitherto been made to collect the entire works into one volume. The present collection contains the following books of verse which he wrote:

GENERAL POEMS AND HYMNS.

TALES IN VERSE ON THE LORD'S PRAYER.

SPIRIT OF THE PSALMS.

THE BATTLE OF SALAMANCA.

It is believed that this edition of Lyte's Poetical Works will be welcomed by those many thousands of readers who have found a benediction in his hymns, and as presenting in one volume the work of the author's lifetime.

Quotations for Pulpit Use.

A MANUAL FOR PREACHERS & SPEAKERS.

By DOROTHY J. TREVASKIS.

With a Preface by the Bishop of Southampton.

THE chief idea in selecting the quotations contained in this book has been to enable those who realize the beauty and helpfulness of poetical language—and yet whose extreme pressure of active work makes much study impossible—to at once turn up a number of extracts on a given subject, this giving an advantage which could otherwise only be acquired by the use of a considerable amount of time and labour.

Over 2,000 quotations are arranged under an alphabetical catena of subjects—such as Prayer, Faith, Communion, Worship, etc., 145 in number—placing the reader at once in touch with what he desires to use on these topics.

The quotations have been especially chosen which are suitable for use in the Pulpit, and they have been collected with a view to high literary character and appropriateness to this purpose rather than for their quantity.

The extracts have been made with much discrimination and judgment, and should prove acceptable to educated readers generally.

"The subjects illustrated number no fewer than 145, and the book should be of great service to ministers struggling to find poetic utterance for their thoughts, or searching for gems of literature to illumine their discourses."—Dundee Advertiser.
