The Moravian Church and Children

NATIVE CHILDREN.

Children are a special care of the Moravian Missionaries. In the mission fields there are over five hundred Day Schools with scholars numbering more than 38,000, and about two hundred Sunday Schools with a total of more than 25,000 scholars.

About one in every seventy-five of the members becomes a missionary, as compared with about one in five thousand in the Churches generally.

There are over a hundred and thirty thousand members in the mission fields, this is more than three times the membership of the parent Church.
