JANUARY, 1936.

The Horror of it

The refugee Huts and Shacks are being pulled down, and rightly so; they are unhealthy and unsanitary.

But where are they to go?

Some have managed to build elsewhere mainly by their little savings and the balance by a loan. There are, however, many still living among the ruins without any roof. It is terrible now the wet weather has set in.

Land has been secured, building has commenced in faith that our friends at home will help.

£5 will provide a part dwelling.

£10 a single-room house.

THE REFORMATION AND REUNION.

By the REV. C. SYDNEY CARTER, D.D.

Price 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"One of the most valuable studies which we have had the pleasure of reading for some time. . . . It proves that some things which the Anglo-Catholic has repeated so often and so dogmatically that he not only believes them himself, but has well-nigh persuaded others to accept their truth, have no historical justification at all. . . . The price of this excellent book is so low that we trust it will find the dissemination its merits deserve. It should be in the hands of all ministers, theological students, and many laymen."—The Expository Times.

THE LIFE AND WORK OF JOHN WYCLIFFE.

By CANON DYSON HAGUE, D.D.

Price 3s. 6d. (Post 4d.)

"Dr. Dyson Hague has made full use of all the recent contributions to the literature of John Wycliffe, and has given us a useful book. The whole effect is excellent, and has been pronounced by many of those who have read it before publication to be the best of Dr. Dyson Hague's works."—The Church Gazette.

BOYS TOGETHER.

A Study in the Life of Jesus Christ, John the Baptist and St. Paul.

By DOROTHY M. GRAVES

Price 1s. (Post 2d.)

"The book abounds with helpful explanations of Eastern life and ways."—English Churchman.

"The studies are well adapted to interest boys and girls in divine truth."—Life of Faith.

"A book that helps to solve the problem of 'Sunday Reading' for the children of Christian homes."—Bible Testimony Fellowship.

YOUNG CHURCHMEN'S MOVEMENT

(Affiliated to the National Church League.)

Aim and Object: "To bring together young Evangelicals of the Church of England, and to strengthen and educate them in the maintenance of the Church's doctrine and practice as expressed in the XXXIX Articles and the Book of Common Prayer."

The Young Churchmen's Movement needs the active co-operation of all young men and women who value the reformed character of our Church. Only so can it hope to take its full part in the work of Christ and His Church.

The annual subscription is 2s. 6d.

If you are under thirty-five, will you write to The Secretary,

YOUNG CHURCHMEN'S MOVEMENT,

DEAN WACE HOUSE,

7 WINE OFFICE COURT,

LONDON, E.C.4.

Important:—Young People's Organisations may be linked on to the Movement at a fee of 6d. per head, or a minimum subscription of 5/- where ten or more members of an Organisation enrol.

The Highest Interest of the Empire is most truly served by constant efforts to extend the Kingdom of God.

The aim of the C.C.C.S. is to do this among our own people overseas. In Western Canada some of the prairie parsons are in charge of parishes covering an area of 8,000 square miles.

"What can the people do for themselves?" is often asked. Nothing, in a material way. Many are receiving government relief, and those who are not are absolutely devoid of anything but the bare necessities of life. They are not able to give any financial assistance, and must depend upon outside help for their spiritual ministrations. These people are willing to give of their time and labour, as in the case of the erection of the Moose Lake Church.

—Vide "Greater Britain Messenger," November—December, 1935.

The C.C.C.S. makes grants to many dioceses, but, unfortunately, these grants are still inadequate to meet the greatness of the need.

Will you send a gift to-day to —The Secretary.

To Reach the Slaves

in bodily bondage in the West Indies, was the objective of our first two missionaries in 1732.

All their successors have been animated by the same desire—to take the Gospel to the slaves of superstition, sin and apathy in earth's darkest places, and to the most "afflicted and distressed"—including lepers. We thank God for every sign of blessing upon our work, and seek your co-operation by prayer and generous gift.
