Life in Labrador

MAK KOVIK LABRADOR

is always hard for the Eskimos, especially in the isolated fishing places, and particularly during the rigours of winter. As a rule, from November until April there is no break in the intensity of the cold.

Do you feel led to support the labours of the Moravian Missionaries in this lonely, inhospitable, but fruitful field of labour?

If so please send gifts of money or warm clothing soon to

“Never Greater Need”

“Never Greater Opportunity”

THE BISHOP OF ATHABASCA, on leaving the Motherland recently, wrote :—

“ I ask all of you for your prayers as I return to my Northern diocese, even as I will remember you.

“ Now, and in the days to come, I pray you to stand by this old Society with your enthusiastic loyalty, both by prayer and gift. It is efficiently giving spiritual assistance to our own British folk all over the world. Never before was there greater need for the spiritual up-building of our Empire ; never was the opportunity more manifest.”

Gifts of Churchpeople in the Homeland to enable the Society to meet the great needs and grasp great opportunities, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Secretary,
