Early Church Fathers

This series, edited by Michael A. G. Haykin, relates the magnificent impact that these fathers of the early church made for our world today. They encountered challenges similar to ones that we face in our postmodern world, and they met them with extraordinary values that will encourage and inspire us today.

Upcoming titles in this series:

Irenaeus of Lyons
Tertullian of Carthage
Athanasius of Alexandria
Chrysostom of Constantinople

Hilary of Poitiers
Augustine of Hippo
Cyril of Alexandria

Basil of Caesarea

His Life and Impact

Marvin Jones

Basil of Caesarea (329-379 AD) was a Greek Bishop in what is now Turkey. A thoughtful theologian, he was instrumental in the formation of the Nicene Creed. He fought a growing heresy, Arianism, that had found converts, including those in high positions of state. In the face of such a threat he showed courage, wisdom and complete confidence in God that we would do well to emulate today.

"Abounding with pastoral wisdom and with the discussion of theological themes important to any era... an insightful study in human nature and how men of God respond to the shifting sands of the theological and ecclesiastical landscape... a critical but sympathetic assessment of a remarkable pilgrim on life's journey."

Paige Patterson, President, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas

Patrick of Ireland

His Life and Impact

Michael A. G. Haykin

Patrick ministered to kings and slaves alike in the culture that had enslaved him. Patrick's faith and his commitment to the Word of God through hard times is a true example of the way that God calls us to grow and to bless those around us through our suffering. Michael Haykin's masterful biography of Patrick's life and faith will show you how you can follow God's call in your life.

"Michael Haykin paints a compelling portrait of this bibliocentric bishop and earnest evangelist. The dedicated missionary and thoughtful theologian that emerges belongs to the Gospel-loving global church and not just the Emerald Isle."

Paul Hartog, Adjunct Faculty, Biblical Studies, Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, Ankeny, Iowa

Correspondence

- Correspondence and paper submission should be directed to either Coleman M. Ford or Shawn J. Wilhite;
e-mail: ancientchristianstudies@gmail.com.

Submission Instructions

- All manuscripts submitted for publication in Fides et Humilitas should be carefully edited, grammatically coherent, cogently argued, and contribute to their respective field.
- All submissions must be delivered in a Microsoft Word file or RTF document.
- Place full name, degree, and current institution on the title page. Do not put name in the article for blind review.

Format and Presentation of the Paper

- Articles should begin with an abstract of 100–150 words.

- Article submissions should be between 2,000 and 6,000 words in length.
- Use primary and secondary headings.

Fonts and Foreign Languages

- Use Gentium Book Basic Font for all articles.
- Use the available SBL Biblit for foreign and biblical languages.
- Quotations from other languages (e.g. German, French, Latin, etc.) should also be translated along with the original text.

Biblical Abbreviations

- When quoting canonical and non-canonical texts, consult Patrick H. Alexander, et al., eds. The SBL Handbook of Style for Ancient Near Eastern, Biblical, and Early Christian Studies (Peabody, MA: Hendrickson, 1999).
 - When references begin a sentence, fully spell the source. E.g., Matthew 7:6 says...
 - When references do not begin a sentence, abbreviate the source. E.g., As Matt 7:6 says... or (Did. 9:5)
 - All references in the footnotes must be abbreviated regardless if they begin a sentence.

Footnotes

- Chicago Style (Turabian) is required throughout the article.
- Footnotes only; no endnotes.
- No ibid. Use Shortened forms on all repeating entries: Last Name, Shortened Title, page #.
